

BRYTTANY ANTOINETTE GRIMES

Michigan State University
220 Trowbridge Rd
East Lansing, MI 48824
grimesb4@msu.edu | 419-344-2713

EDUCATION

Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan

PhD Candidate, History (Fall 2024 - present)

GPA: 4.0

Dissertation: "Exploring Women's Dress and Agency in Northern Nigeria"

Advisor: Dr. Walter Hawthorne

Committee Members: Dr. Walter Hawthorne, Dr. Michelle Moyd, Dr. Mara Leichtman

University of Toledo, Toledo, Ohio

Master of Arts, History (December 2023)

GPA: 4.0

University of Findlay, Findlay, Ohio

Bachelor of Arts, Criminal Justice Administration (May 2018)

Bachelor of Arts, Law and the Liberal Arts

GPA: 3.3

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- African History
- Gender Studies
- Colonial and Post-colonial Studies
- Material Culture
- Nigerian Cultural Heritage

PUBLICATIONS

Master's Thesis

Grimes, Bryttany. "Nigerian Women and Internal Valuations of Womanhood: A Comparative Study of Hausa and Igbo Women through the Lens of Religion and British Colonization."

Master's Thesis, University of Toledo, 2023.

Under Review

"The Nwaobiala of 1925: Dancing to Keep Igbo Culture Alive," The Historian

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

- "The Looting of Benin: How Western Nations Have Robbed Nigeria of Its Cultural Heritage," Ohio Academy of History Annual Conference (April 2023)
- "THE NWAOBIALA OF 1925: Dancing to Keep Igbo Culture Alive," Phi Alpha Theta History Colloquium, University of Toledo (March 2023)
- "The Plight of Nigerian Women: Hegemonic Masculinity and the Legacy of Colonialism," Phi Alpha Theta History Colloquium, University of Toledo (March 2022)
- "Painful Episodes in History: The Unpopular History of the Congo," UT & BGSU History Colloquium (March 2021)

INVITED TALKS

- "The Impact of Colonialism," University of Toledo (October 2021)
- "Women and Colonial Africa," University of Toledo (October 2020)
- "The Advent and Imposition of Colonialism," University of Toledo (September 2020)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI

Teaching Assistant

- Biology, Technology, and the Human Condition (Fall 2024)
- War and Revolutions (Spring 2025)

AWARDS AND FELLOWSHIPS

- Outstanding Master's Student Award, University of Toledo History Department (2023)
- Lloyd and Betty Lapp Award, University of Toledo History Department (2021, 2022, 2023)
- Outstanding Part-time Graduate Student Award, University of Toledo History Department (2022)

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Ohio History Connection, Bowling Green, Ohio

History Day Judge (March 2023, March 2024)

LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

Hausa Language Training:

- AFR 151: Beginning Individualized African Language I
- AFR 152: Beginning Individualized African Language II

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society
- Phi Alpha Theta History Society

REFERENCES

Dr. Walter Hawthorne

Old Horticulture Building, Room 354
506 E. Circle Dr
East Lansing, MI 48842
walterh@msu.edu | (517)355-7500

Dr. Michelle Moyd

Old Horticulture Building, Room 160A
506 E. Circle Dr
East Lansing, MI 48842
moydmich@msu.edu | (517)884-4922

Dr. Shingi Mavima

University Hall, Room 5210-L
2801 W. Bancroft St
Toledo, OH 43606
Blessing.mavima@utoledo.edu | (419)530-4726